The Daily Oregonian.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 31, 1864.

NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
Of Illinois.

For Vice-President,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
Of Tennessee.

For Presidential Electors,
GEORGE L. WOODS, of Wasco County,
H. N. GEORGE, of Linn County,
J. F. GAZLEY, of Douglas County.

A NEW DIFFICULTY.—The only difference now remaining unsettled between the Northern and Southern Democracy, is found in the solution of the slavery question. Jeff. Davis told Col. Jacques, on his recent visit to Richmond that we had two millions of their niggers now: and if we will only take care of them, we are welcome to the rest. Said Jefferson Davis; "At the commencement of the war I had a few on my plantation who were no benefit to me, but I was of great use to them," &c. Certainly Davis was correct, and his proposition is the most reasonable one of rebellious origin, and if the "Cops" really have any regard for their friends South as they pretend, they surely can "let them alone" to that extent.

Now Lincoln and the Union party are willing the contraband should be free; we recognize the reasonableness of the proposal, and are only waiting for the cussed rebels to quit fighting to take them up at their own offer, shake hands and be friends again.

The "Cops" claim that slavery is part and parcel of the Constitution; that the instrument is our only salvation, and that they would as soon live as die if this great charter of our liberties is not to guarantee slavery to those who inherited it as their birthright.

They claim that this instrument gave certain rights to certain Southerners, and slavery being guaranteed to them they are bound to enjoy it whether they like it and can stand it or not.

Now we believe in a reasonable peace. We are of a conciliating turn, and would like to have some basis of settlement effected in the ranks of the unterrified.

This delay is terrible on the rebs, as, while their Northern wing refuses to concur in the proposed arrangement, Sheridan and Sherman are playing the mischief with Early and Hood. All we say is brethren should agree.

MR. HAYDEN AND THE "GRAVE DIGGER."—The modern Democracy, to the number of about a hundred or so, Saturday night, met in the vicinity of Arrigoni's and were administered to by some of the sachems of the tribe. Captain Miller is not much of an orator, and his speech was not effective, but he was followed by Ben. Hayden, the Democratic candidate for Presidential elector.

It is true that the outpouring of Hayden's eloquence is so tremendous, and his volubility so excessive, that his argument was to some extent swallowed up in the rail-road-speed clatter of his tongue; but he adduced with considerable effect the arguments against the Administration, made by his party, and made the best of a bad cause. Alluding to the term "grave-digger" as applied to the hero of the Chickahominy, with would-be prophetic eye, he saw a grave to be soon dug for "Lincoln and his tribe." Now we always believe in employing competent persons for all work—grave diggers not excepted—and little Mac.'s experience in that line is doubtless as great, as his want of military success has hitherto been remarkable, but we don't see the thing in that light, and neither does the Democratic party, with all its vaporings of vaunted confidence. Mr. Hayden managed to tell his audience that he had a thousand acres of land in Polk County, that was not to be confiscated. Well! who said it was?

WHO WILL VOLUNTEER?—Three years since our State was called on for a regiment to serve on the frontier. This regiment has been actively employed in the service, and has accomplished much good. Its term of service is about expiring, and in view of that fact, and the necessity for providing future protection to the mining regions of Eastern Oregon and Idaho and the settlements now being made upon every spot of fertile land bordering on the streams of that section. Major General McDowell has made a requisition upon this State for a regiment of Volunteer Infantry 1,000 strong. The requisition must be met promptly. The Legislative Assembly, as one of the last acts of that body, passed an act that has had the approval of the Governor, and is now a law, and it can be found published officially in our columns this morning, and we call the attention of all our readers to its provisions. One hundred and fifty dollars will be paid by the State to volunteers under the new call, and the subject commends itself to every citizen who holds dear the reputation for loyalty of our State. So far we have had no burdens to bear, but now we propose to assume what seems but a trifle in comparison to the sacrifices made by the Eastern States. Let every citizen aid the enlistment.

SHALL WE HAVE A DRAFT?—A regiment of volunteers must either be raised by enlistment, or we must have a draft.

State pride should stimulate every Union man to secure all possible enlistments, and aid by every legitimate means the filling up of the regiment required of us.

It is the interest of every citizen of our State, whatever his political prejudices may be, to secure, if possible, by immediate enlistment the 1,000 men for the new regiment.

Our frontier must be protected. The great source of our present unexampled prosperity is the vast mining region to the eastward, drained by the waters of the Columbia, and exposed to constant depredation from hostile tribes of surrounding savages. Let us, then, raise the force required for their efficient protection.

When it comes to a question of draft all are interested; let us avoid it if possible. Let us respond, as a people, largely and quickly to the call of Gen. McDowell. Let us show that irrespective of party prejudices, we value the reputation of the Pacific States; and let our pride in the State of Oregon impel us to action. LET THERE BE NO DRAFT.

THE LATE HOMICIDE.—There are [illegible] to every community who [illegible] of the law [illegible] this city, which rich [illegible] have drawn together not only enterprising and energetic men from all parts of the world, to transact our business and develope both our agricultural and mineral wealth, but have attracted hither as well more than our full proportion of the ruffianism and vice that invest civilization everywhere.

[illegible] has been [illegible] a murderer; and after a career of violence that has made him notorious, and almost an outlaw through the eastern mining region of [illegible] State, Washington and Idaho, has found his way hither, and has here added to [illegible] obtained [illegible] by taking another life. Whatever the circumstances may have been we do not profess to know; the life taken may have been as [illegible] and worthless for all the practical needs of society as his own; we only recognize the fact that violence has cost human life; that society has been outraged, and that the name of our fair city suffers the stigma of the act as it is noised forth to satisfy the morbid love of horrors that pervades the world.

We do not seek to unnecessarily blacken any man's character, or to prejudice his [illegible] but simply state that justice demands that these pariahs of society shall not, with impunity, exercise their brutal instincts even at the expense of their own worthless existence, within the bounds of our city.

BOUNTIES FOR VOLUNTEERS.—The Government has a standing bounty offered to all volunteers, of Three Hundred Dollars: one hundred to be paid down on the enlistment, and the remainder in subsequent installments during the period of service.

The State of Oregon offers to all "volunteers for any regiment or battalion now in the service, or hereafter to be in the service as part of the quota of troops due from this State: a bounty of one hundred and fifty dollars in gold, or by warrant drawn by the Secretary of State on the State Treasurer, which is only payable in gold—making the handsome sum of four hundred and fifty dollars offered by the General and State Governments to each volunteer forming part of the quota of this State.

In addition to all this, the State recognizes her obligations to the 1st Reg. of Cavalry, by offering each officer and enlisted man in that Regiment the extra sum of five dollars per month for all time spent by them in the service.

These inducements should suffice to fill up the old regiment as well as the new one called for, at short notice. Scarce any business of the day promises better remuneration than the above.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.—On another page will be found the proclamation of Gov. Gibbs, that has been published for a week past, in earnest and stirring terms calling on the people of this State to fill up the quota of troops called for by the Government. While the cause itself appeals to the patriotism of the people, the language of the Governor seconds it with full effect, and extended comment on our part is unnecessary. We have attempted in brief articles, to be found in to-day's columns, to show that while the cause appeals more heartily to our patriotic impulses for success, and while the personal interest of every man is promoted by obviating the necessity for a draft, that very few inducements of a pecuniary nature can be more remunerative than the service of our country, thanks to liberal bounties offered by State and General Government.

They say that the "Cops," sent some time since for a Philadelphia Directory, and since its arrival have kept some one busy all the time copying names on to the "McClellan Club" list. They lost some time in finding a "Cop." that could copy, but he has his hand well in now, and is making good time considering his "larnin." He can't write as fast as Ben. Hayden talks by a long shot, if he could McClellan would have a good thing of carrying every State. As it is, if it don't rain before election they intend to carry this county, and Sauvie's Island.

SONS OF THE F. F. V.'S.—In an article on "Modern Chivalry," the Baltimore American says that in the curious novel, "Moll Flanders," Daniel DeFoe thus portrayed the characteristics of Virginia colonization:

"The greatest part of the inhabitants of that colony came thither in very indifferent circumstances from England. Generally speaking, they were of two sorts; either, 1st, such as were brought over by masters of ships to be sold as servants; or, 2d, such as are transported after having been found guilty of crimes punishable with death."

"When they come here," continues the narrative "we make no difference; the planters buy them, and they work together in the field till their time is out. When it is expired, they have encouragement given them to plant for themselves, for they have a certain number of acres of land allotted to them. Hence many a Newgate bird becomes a great man; and we have several justices of the peace, officers of the train-bands, and magistrates of the towns they live in, that have been burnt in the hand."

Pretty antecedents, truly! We wonder if the branded hand appears in the coat-of-arms of the descendants of these "magistrates," drained from the scum of Newgate when it was filled to repletion with rascality. Probably the F. F.'s have left an empty sleeve on one side of the coat. No wonder that intellectual giant, John Randolph, of Roanoke, was proud of his descent from an Indian squaw when he had such neighbors.—Nashville Union.

OLD ABE AND BLONDIN.—The Pittsburg Commercial, a Union paper, states the following incident, which lately occurred at the White House. Some gentlemen were present, excited and troubled about things generally, when Old Abe put a sudden stop to their complainings by the recital of the following. Said he:

"Gentlemen, suppose all the property you were worth was in gold, and you had put it in the hands of Blondin to carry across the Niagara river on a rope, would you shake the cable or keep shouting out to him, Blondin stand up a little straighter—Blondin, stoop a little more—or, a little more to the north—lean a little more to the south! No; you would hold your breath, as well as your tongue, and keep your hands off until he was safe over. The Government is carrying an immense weight. Untold treasures are in their hands. They are doing the very best they can. Don't badger them. Keep silence, and we'll get you safe across."

CONFEDERATE HEAVEN.—It's alive with [illegible] and its fountains spout nothing but fighting whisky. Although it is eminently a [illegible] clime, the little boys carry Arkansas toothpicks, and the big chiefs wear wampum belts, composed entirely of Yankee ears, and drink [illegible] from Abolitionists' skulls. These ornaments and convivial vessels are cheaper there than they are at Gettysburg. No free negroes are admitted to that land of Beulah—they are not considered constitutional. Nothing but evangelical Confederate gospel is allowed to be preached. After their regular flogging, contraband cherubims take the sacrament at the quarters, and with chalk [illegible] on their heads, follow their benefactors to celestial glory, where Abolitionists cease from troubling and worried butternuts are at rest. [illegible] happy land! where little negro cherubims, with [illegible] wings and butternut pants, flit about in perpetual servitude, without the guardian [illegible] bloodhound or a stimulus of the rawhide.—[illegible]

We have received from the Secretary of State, a package containing six Acts of the late Legislative Assembly for publication, the first which we insert to-day, and call particular attention to its details as it relates to a very important subject at the present time, being "AN ACT RELATING TO THE QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS."

Voices from Chicago.

[illegible]

"WHAT IT IS TO BE A WAR DEMOCRAT."

Rev. Henry Clay Dean said:

"Since the day when Abraham [illegible] for the murder of the Jewish [illegible] crime has not been recorded in the recent [illegible] the ignorant [illegible] at Washington calling for half a million more of your [illegible] a fresh immolation on the Abolition god."

A WORD FOR WAR DEMOCRATS.

Mr. Olden, of Illinois, said:

"But we have men who call themselves War Democrats. Such are [illegible] and McClernand. They are not Democrats, they are [illegible] Utopians, and this fall we will bury them in the same grave as the Abolitionists, and [illegible] eternal infamy."

THE WAR DEMOCRAT IS A JUDAS.

Mr. McMasters, of New York, said:

"A man who is in favor of this unnatural war insults the holy name of Democracy when he claims a place in its organization. He is a Judas and should be cast out as an enemy to Humanity and to God."

"WAR AT THE NORTH THREATENED."

Prof. Wedgwood, of New York, said:

"The scenes of Missouri will be repeated in Illinois in less than six months if the war should be continued. (Yes, and all over the country.) If the war continues you may rely upon it that every man's hand will be turned against his neighbor, and the result will be that there will be a contest between Republicans and Democrats here at home."

ALL THE PEACE MEN FOR THE CHICAGO NOMINEE.

Mr. Baker, of Michigan, said:

"I am for peace, (Cheers) for war is destroying our liberty. I came here to proclaim peace [illegible] Will you support a war man if he is nominated? We don't want a war man. I will support any man who is nominated at the Chicago Convention. (Cheers.)"

NOT DEMOCRATIC VOTES ENOUGH—WHAT SHALL BE DONE?

Major Stambaugh, of Ohio, said:

"I am a native of the same county with Mr. Vallandigham, and there is but little difference in our ages. I know him to be a pure patriot. (Loud cheers.) We have not Democratic votes enough to elect our candidates. We must have the conservatives of the Republican party. Shall we open the doors and receive them? (Yes, let them come.)"

NON COERCION AND DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS.

Mr. O. C. Burr said:

"The Democratic party must recognize in their nomination the doctrine of non-coercion, or it will not and ought not to be successful. This campaign will be satisfactory only if conducted upon the principles of the old Democratic party, and they were peaceful principles. Those doctrines must be represented either in the candidate or the platform. Get the candidate if you can, but the platform at all events."

A VISION OF A DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION.

Captain Keats of Pennsylvania said:

"The Democratic government must be raised to power, and Lincoln, with his Cabinet of rogues, thieves and spies, be driven to destruction. What shall we do with him? Any voice—Send Lincoln here, and I'll make a coffin for him. [illegible] him. Yes, continued the speaker, d—n him and his miserable followers. I do not propose to give you, to-night, the platform of the Democratic party, for as yet it is unborn; but I should like to see the noble George B. McClellan as President, (cheers) and that great democrat, Horatio Seymour, should occupy the position of Secretary of State. In the Cabinet I would see the name of Voorhees and the brilliant galaxy of gentlemen statesmen who cluster around the Democratic banner."

This, we think, is enough for one day. Let her people read, and then reflect that if such influences and associations as these were productive of the Chicago nomination and platform, which are now before the country for approval or rejection.—Boston Journal.

The Richmond Examiner, of the 3d [illegible] says:

"If Atlanta were to fall, or Petersburg, or if Sheridan should drive Early back to Lynchburg, or if any one of these events should befall, then all the peace principles and peace Presidents of Chicago would be at the election next November where last year's snow is, and last night's moonshine."

Very true.

Club Meeting at Forest Grove.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

A called meeting of the Forest Grove Lincoln and Johnson Club was held on the evening of the 25th of October. Stirring speeches were made by Ex-Secretary Turney, of Washington Territory, Koehler, of the Dalles, W. Bowlby and others. Papers were circulated to ascertain how many desired to join a military company. Some forty-five names were enrolled and others were pledged. As several weeks would elapse before a permanent organization could be effected under the military law, a temporary organization was decided upon. An election of officers resulted as follows: Captain, E. A. Tanner; 1st Lieut., Geo. [illegible]; 2d Lieut., J. Q. Bowlby. It was voted that an abstract of the evening's proceedings should be forwarded to the OREGONIAN for publication.

ELKANAH WALKER, President.

E. A. TANNER, Sec'y.

HAVE YOU ENEMIES?—Go straight on and don't mind them. If they get in your way, walk round them regardless of their spite. A man who has no enemies is seldom good for anything—he is made of that material that is so easily worked that everybody has a hand in it. A sterling character is one who thinks for himself, and speaks what he thinks. He is always sure to have enemies. They are as necessary to him as fresh air. They keep him alive and active. A celebrated character who was surrounded by enemies, used to remark: "They are sparks which, if you do not blow, will go out of themselves." [illegible] Men [illegible] endeavoring to live down the scandal of those who are bitter against you [illegible] to halt at every device [illegible] house. Let the poor fellows talk [illegible] reaction, if you do but your duty, and hundreds who were once alienated from you will flock to you and acknowledge their error.

DR. WM. HALL'S
BALSAM
CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE

CINCINNATI, [illegible] 1861.
Scovill & Co. [illegible] feel it a duty I owe [illegible] to let them know the [illegible] your Dr. William Hall's [illegible] cure for curing of Croup [illegible] little girl, [illegible] an attack of Croup, and came very near dying [illegible] her Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam, as directed, which [illegible] in a very short time. We have used it in cases of [illegible] with the happiest effect. Benjamin [illegible] between Main and Sycamore streets. For sale by Druggists everywhere. REDINGTON & CO., General Agents for the Pacific Coast, 416 and 418 Front street, San Francisco.

Beware of all other preparations of the same name. Each bottle of the genuine bears the signature of "[illegible] Baker & Co.," Cincinnati. Take none other. Price One Dollar per bottle.

AS A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood, leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we commend [illegible]

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of all [illegible]ors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures.

STREET AFFRAY AND HOMICIDE.—Charley Cavin, a former bar-tender at The Office saloon in this city, and Matt. Bledsoe, a man known everywhere almost on the Pacific coast, met on Friday night, at the corner of Morrison and First streets, where they got into an altercation concerning their relations, or claims to, one of two women who were accompanying Bledsoe to an oyster saloon, which resulted in the killing of Cavin. The matter was investigated before Justice Anderson on Saturday evening, and Bledsoe was held for his appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court, in the sum of $5,000, in default of which he was committed to jail. The evidence intended to show that Cavin had drawn a knife on Bledsoe, when the latter knocked him down with the butt of a pistol, and struck him twice afterwards, about the head. The deceased was then left, when, through the assistance of friends, he made his way to a saloon near by, washed the blood from his face and head, then was taken to bed, where he was found lifeless on Saturday morning.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—Miss Ince made her second appearance Saturday evening in Victor Hugo's terribly exciting drama of "Lucretia Borgia." Her opening appeared somewhat tame in effect, and her splendid voice seemed to be exercised without sufficient life in its utterance. As the play progressed, and its fearful accumulation of tragedy developed, she proved equal to the part assigned her, and her success was felt by the entire audience, who were at times spell-bound with the thrilling interest of the play. One can scarce conceive of anything more effective and more clearly speaking the article, than, as reaching up to shield herself, from deserved death, deprecating the blow from such a hand, the play is closed with her so distinct but scarce uttered avowal:

"Gennaro, I am thy mother."

The rest of the company are old acquaintances, and we need only say that Waldron, in the difficult part of Gennaro, did always well. Mrs. Sue Robinson [illegible] followed in a ballad that was encored, when she reappeared and delighted everybody with her truly inimitable singing and acting of "Kiss-me-quick-and-go"—a truly silly thing but she made it irresistible—winding up with the successful old farce of "The Fool of the Family."

DESPERATE CASES LIGHTLY HANDLED.—We have on former occasions alluded to the fact that it too frequently happens in the way of dealing with what may be termed "hard cases," that the officers of the law were entirely too lenient in their duties, and we now have the facts proving most emphatically, that some of them fail to do their duty at all. We understand that Deputy Marshal Foreman was present, or in the immediate vicinity of the locality when the homicide was committed on Friday night, yet he did not make an arrest. Another illustration of weakness is in the fact, that the desperado who committed a Penitentiary act by firing three distinct shots at a man in front of the Identical saloon, gets off by a simple fine of ten dollars and costs which is paid in legal tender notes. This we do not pretend to be a dictator for the public we must admit at least that such circumstances deserve the strictest censure of the public, and if the peace of the community is to be preserved some alteration of the present system is absolutely a necessity.

A NEW APPEARANCE.—Mount Hood and Mount St. Helens appeared yesterday, from our residence in this city, to wear a new mantle of snow, and the features of the magnificent scene were indescribably beautiful. The clearness of the sky, the mellowness of the atmosphere, the silvery rays of the sun, lent their charms to the picture, which thousands are languishing in other parts of the world to see. People here are apt to cry: "Give me money!" "Give me money!" and will forget for a time, the beautiful things of nature that surround them on every hand, but when the drapery cloud is lifted, and they see these heavenly sights, the thought of filthy lucre vanishes in an instant, and the only desire is to contemplate the really gorgeous scene, thanking heaven that it is their lot to live in such a favored region.

ALL HALLOW EVE.—This being the 31st day of October, to-night will be Hallow-e'en, as being the vigil of All Hallow Day, November 1st. In former times Hallow-e'en was greatly celebrated as a festive occasion throughout the old world, and is still [illegible], but not so extensively. There is not a society in this city, we believe, that make a public occasion of it, as in San Francisco and elsewhere, but a great many individuals who would desire to do so, are living in Portland. All Hallow Eve is often called "Apple Eve," "Nut Crack Night," etc., and various are the sports indulged in by those early celebrators of its customs. The festivities and fortune telling practices of this eve are very nearly the same all over the British Islands, so that the Scotch, Welsh, Irish and English joined in its commemoration.

THE FANNIE TROUP.—The boilers of this handsome new steamer were "warmed up" on Saturday evening, and she made a short run in the river, her engines working very satisfactory. Yesterday she visited her future home Vancouver. By a little alteration of her wheel the Fannie Troup will be as fast as she is substantial. There is considerable work to be done before she is completed for the trade.

FROM ASTORIA.—The steamer John H. Couch, Capt. Holman, arrived from Astoria last evening, twenty-four hours behind time, in consequence of delays attendant upon the trip down, with the bark Jennie Salisbury in tow, and grounding in the Cowlitz river on the return trip via. Monticello. She will return to Astoria to-day, taking with her the passengers and remaining freight for Honolulu, by the bark Cambridge.

DROWNED.—Just as the steamship Brother Jonathan was about to hoist anchor on her departure for San Francisco, from the mouth of the Willamette on Friday evening, a man fell overboard apparently in a fit, and was drowned. His body was recovered and taken to Astoria for interment. The name corresponding with his ticket was John Smith.

CHEAP TRAVEL.—The Couch and Rescue are still engaged in running opposition. Fare to Monticello has been reduced to 25 cents. We understand there is also an opposition from Monticello to Olympia, and the stages there are taking passengers at $6.00—less than one half the old rates.

RECRUITING OFFICER.—Capt. W. S. Powell of this city, at present commanding Company A, of the Volunteer Militia, has been appointed by Gov. Gibbs officer to recruit for a company of Infantry in this district or town, under the late call of Gen. McDowell.

INCALCULABLE.—The benefits which will accrue to the farmers by the late rains in Oregon are incalculable. Now the soil will be in excellent condition for fall seeding, and much winter wheat will be sown.

LOVE IN OLD AGE.—We have the particulars of a marriage up the Valley but a short time since, in which the bride was 70, and the bridegroom 82 years of age. They are evidently commencing to live until they attain a good old age.

Letter from Umatilla.

LOWER UMATILLA, Oct. 24, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The Union cause is prospering in Umatilla county, and under the auspices of such advocates as Hon. A. E. Wait, the copperhead of the Democratic party, and the Hon. G. L. Woods, the bold and fearless exponent of true Union principles. Messrs. Wait and Woods spoke at Umatilla City on Saturday evening, and at this place this afternoon. There was a grand rally at each place and a good indication is the result. At Umatilla Mr. Wait spoke first, during which he occupied two hours in rehearsing his old sentiments which [illegible] him during his contest with J. R. McBride for Congress, and judging from the force of argument which he has now to contend with, he may [illegible] contemplate a similar result.

Mr. Woods acquitted himself with much credit and won a host of friends, and the Union men of Umatilla are determined to redeem this county from the disgraceful stain cast upon it at the June election.

The first effect of a bilious climate upon the human system is to produce torpor and inactivity of the Liver, thereby preventing the natural and free discharge of bile. All know the lurking nature of the poison that produces Fever and Ague and its kindred diseases. A sallow complexion, capricious appetite, and occasional pain in the side, are often the only symptoms to warn of impending danger. The operation of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is to counteract this miasmal influence, by producing activity of the biliary organs, and a healthy discharge of bile from the system.

Guard against imitations! Be sure that you obtain Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue and you are safe. Sold everywhere. Sole Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The stomach is the fountain head of scores of diseases which infest the human system. Indigestion, bad enough per se, generates diarrhea, dysentery, faintness, vertigo, palpitation of the heart, general debility, &c. Get rid of it, then, at once, by going through a course of

A palatable and refreshing preparation, which as surely relieves all complaints of the stomach and its dependencies, as the sunshine melts the snow. A course of the medicine may not perhaps be necessary. One bottle frequently accomplishes a complete cure.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. oct3daw

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency monthly under protest for the rent of the making less than two-thirds of the real amount Mr. Mayer was to pay. He has secured the building at every advantageous rate, and can afford now to comply with his contract and pay in COIN, should be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times, to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what course he deserves. G. W. VAUGHN.

Proclamation.

STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE OFFICE, [illegible] October [illegible], 1864.

WHEREAS, I have received a requisition from Major General [illegible] commanding the Department of the Pacific, to [illegible] under the authority of [illegible] a regiment of infantry [illegible] volunteers now in the service of the United States [illegible] to the expiration [illegible] duty [illegible] district.

Now, therefore, I, ADDISON C. GIBBS, Governor of the State of Oregon, and Commander-in-Chief of the Militia thereof, do hereby call upon the citizens [illegible] to organize themselves [illegible] the [illegible] for the foregoing requisition.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be affixed. Done at Salem this [illegible] day of October, A. D. 1864.

ADDISON C. GIBBS,
Governor of Oregon.

Attest: SAMUEL E. MAY, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated: The plan of recruiting and organizing the above force will be as follows until further notice:

RECRUITING.

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry, Oregon Volunteers. The field, staff and line officers will be commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts, according to the number of [illegible] required [illegible] to do military duty. When such district [illegible] of men [illegible] the [illegible] under this call. Each district will [illegible] company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor [illegible] officers, conditioned that they shall recruit the [illegible] companies, and be ready to be mustered into the service within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established at the most central point in each district, and, if practicable, [illegible] will be retained there until the company is filled and ready to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest bearing bonds [illegible] gold to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 150.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, equipments, rations and allowances furnished by the United States. (See Statutes 1864, page 662.)

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant, an extra lieutenant, one (1) quartermaster, an extra lieutenant, one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates, minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates, maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated and paid as privates.

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with commendable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. This people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. The draft here must inevitably be some cases of severe hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of patriotism and of State pride and personal pride requires that you commence promptly and prosecute vigorously the business of obtaining volunteers. The officers of the State feeling the most earnest desire that the entire State should avoid a draft, appeal to the patriotic citizens of your county, through you who are their officers and legal and natural representatives. As guardians of their rights and of their honor, it is incumbent upon you to respond to this appeal by earnest and effective work. Call to your aid the assistance of the active and influential citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and, if possible, induce him to realize that by his [illegible] immediate and personal interest [illegible] success of your efforts. If necessary, call meetings in your school districts and bring the matter home to every individual. Funds will be needed to pay expenses not provided for by law. Let subscriptions be circulated in each county for that purpose, and preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor, upon whom the requisition is made, expects, and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

Cleanse the Blood.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

BLOOD AND LIVER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER, HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES, NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered [illegible] purify the blood, and get the fluids moving [illegible] health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and uretors of the kidney, preventing gravel formations and enlargements of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, CROUP,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest or Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that IT IS WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. EDWARD YOUNGS.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET, NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

Dr. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill has been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

Thy friend ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

etc., etc., etc., etc., etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATTENDED this invaluable medicine, renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,

and all diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE FAILURE OF IRON AS A REMEDY for Dyspepsia, a bad state of the Blood, and numerous diseases caused thereby, has arisen from the want of such a preparation of Iron as shall enter the stomach in a PROTOXIDE state, and assimilate at once with the blood. This want the Peruvian Syrup supplies, and it does so in the only form in which it is possible for Iron to enter the circulation. For this reason the PERUVIAN SYRUP often radically cures diseases in which other preparations of Iron and other medicines have been found to be of no avail.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medical effects of Protoxide of Iron are lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible. In the PERUVIAN SYRUP this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.

The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated [illegible] that it was published in the Medical Journal [illegible] recommended to practitioners in the "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page [illegible]

Proclamation.

STATE OF OREGON—EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, October 2[illegible]th, 1864.

Whereas, I have received a requisition from Major General Irvin McDowell, commanding the Department of the Pacific, under the authority of the War Department, for a Regiment of Infantry, in addition to the Volunteers now in the service of the United States, [illegible]

Now, therefore, I, A. C. GIBBS, Governor of the State of Oregon, and Commander-in-Chief of the Militia thereof, [illegible]

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be affixed. Done at Salem this [illegible] day of October, A. D. 1864.

[L. S.] ADDISON C. GIBBS.

Attest: SAMUEL E. MAY, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated [illegible] plan of recruiting and organizing the above [illegible] will be as follows until further notice:

RECRUITING.

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry Oregon Volunteers. The field, staff and line officers will be commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts, according to the number of [illegible] Each district will [illegible] company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to [illegible] conditioned that they shall recruit their respective companies, and be ready to be mustered into the service within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established [illegible] in each district, and [illegible] will be retained there until the company is filled and ready to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest bearing bonds, payable in gold, to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 486.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, equipments, rations and allowances furnished by the United States. (See statutes 1863, page 302.)

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

Colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates, minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated and paid as privates.

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with commendable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. Under it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of patriotism and of State pride and personal pride requires that you commence promptly and prosecute vigorously the business of obtaining volunteers. The Executive of the State feeling the most earnest desire that the entire State should avoid a draft, appeals to the patriotic citizens of your county, through you who are their officers and legal and natural representatives. As guardians of their rights and of their honor, it is incumbent upon you to respond to this appeal with earnest and successful work. Call to your aid the assistance of the active and influential citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and, if possible, induce him to realize that he has an immediate and personal interest in the success of your efforts. If necessary, call meetings in your school districts and bring the matter home to every inhabitant. Funds will be needed to pay expenses, not provided for by law. Let subscriptions be circulated in each county for that purpose, and preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor, upon whom the requisition is made, expects, and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

LE. DOYEN'S
Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock
—AND—
IODINE ALTERATIVE
FOR THE CONSTITUTION.

Cleanse the Blood.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples, sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

BLOOD AND LIVER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER, HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES, NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and disorders of the kidney, preventing gravel formations and enlargements of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, &c.

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, CROUP,
Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis,
Pains and Oppression of the Chest or Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing disease of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that IT IS WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH in a FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED to BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

The following is from the Manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

Dr. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children, suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. [illegible] one little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.
